MISSION OF PORTLAND CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

To develop innovative problem-solvers through playful learning experiences that strengthen relationships between children and their world.

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Portland Children's Museum consists of three aligned entities: (1) the Museum, where exhibits and programs serve the public both on- and off-site, (2) Opal School, a fee-based preschool and K-5 public charter school, and (3) the Museum Center for Learning, which documents and disseminates fresh approaches to education and provides professional development for educators. In this description, Museum, School, and Center refer to the specific entity, while Portland Children's Museum (or, "the organization") refers to the whole.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

At Portland Children's Museum, we welcome and respect all families and all colleagues. We believe every human is curious, creative, and capable, with unique gifts and abilities that the world needs. We value our differences; however they may be expressed, and we know that diversity is essential to building a vibrant learning community.

Our organization takes a stance on challenging racial injustice and social intolerance in order to strengthen our democracy. We aim to create an inclusive environment by attracting, advancing, and retaining a diverse board of directors, workforce, and volunteer team. Currently 44% of Portland Public School students are black, indigenous, and people of color, and we strive to have our organization and outreach efforts reflect the diversity of our community.

POSITION SUMMARY

Portland Children's Museum offers 12 weeks of summer day camps for children age 4–10 years. These camps combine outdoor exploration with artistic experiences to inspire children to create and share through a wide range of art media. Camps run 8:30 a.m.–3 p.m., Monday through Friday, June 8 through August 28. Applicants should be able to commit to all training and programming from June 1 – August 28.

Camp Counselors are responsible for inspiring and supporting young visitors' curiosity and creativity in open-ended art and nature exploration through Summer Camp programs. Camp Counselors work in pairs to guide children through the day while maintaining a safe, creative, and inspiring environment with a counselor to student ratio of 1:7 or fewer.
